

Casey Middle School furniture for sale

By Amy Bounds

Monday, January 5, 2009

The Boulder Valley School District, as part of its deconstruction work at Boulder's Casey Middle School, has sent five trucks of school furniture to the ReSource reclaimed materials program in east Boulder.

The furniture is for sale to the public through the nonprofit environmental program. Casey alumni and Boulder community members are picking up chairs, desks, bookcases and other items for "pennies on the dollar."

ReSource is located at 2665 63rd St.

© 2006 Daily Camera and Boulder Publishing, LLC.